

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge special events experienced by Show-Me State residents who have been blessed by exceptionally long and productive lives; and

Whereas, Naomi Grace (Kutzner) Cameron of Memphis, Missouri, will soon attain the long-awaited status of Missouri Centenarian; and

Whereas, born on January 1, 1904, into the family of Walter Kutzner and Mary (Luman) Kutzner, Naomi Cameron will celebrate her One Hundredth Birthday on January 3, 2004, with a gathering of family members and friends in the Sunroom of the Scotland County Care Center where cake and ice cream will be served; and

Whereas, after an enjoyable childhood filled with all types of educational and rewarding activities, Naomi Cameron established a family of her own through her joyful marriage to Alfred Cameron who loved and cherished her with all of his heart; and

Whereas, Naomi and Alfred Cameron were blessed by the arrival of an adopted son, Roger, who filled their lives with love and warmth, and by three delightful grandchildren; and

Whereas, Naomi Cameron also deserves mention of her earlier work as a department store clerk, membership in the Woman's Club, founding of the Arts Council and the donating of its building, and interests in china painting, reading, and tatting; and

Whereas, a vibrant part of the twenty-first century, Naomi Cameron enjoys a life which encompassed most of the twentieth century with its first flights by heavier-than-air craft, worldwide turmoil associated with World War I and World War II, rise of the automobile as America's preferred mode of travel, demise of the Soviet Union as the Cold War drew to a close, and shift from a primarily agricultural economy to one dependent upon industry and then upon the service and information sectors:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the joyous arrival of the One Hundredth Birthday of Naomi Cameron and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest congratulations at attaining such a rare milestone in life and our best wishes for many more celebratory events in the future; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Naomi Grace Cameron of Memphis, Missouri.
